

Sa'aiki'somm (March) [sa-ay-kee-soum]

Blackfoot: sa'a
English: duck
French: canard

"March is known as the duck month because the ducks would usually come back to this area after spending the winter away. However, things are changing due to climate change and you may have seen ducks around all winter."

-Annette Bruised Head

"All animals helped humans decipher the weather, returning of Ducks was a good sign spring has arrived".

-Trevor Kii Tokii

[Teacher's Convention]

Great read!

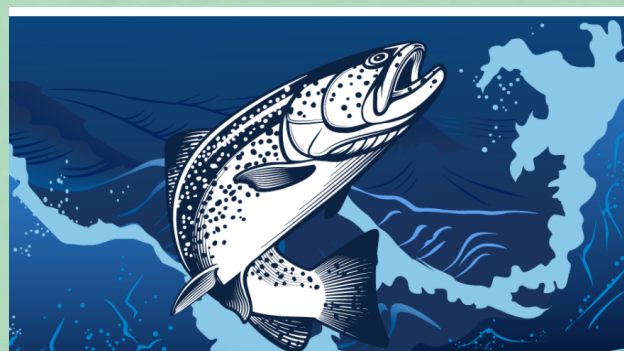

"WE BUILT A LIFE FROM NOTHING"
WHITE SETTLER COLONIALISM AND THE MYTH OF MERITOCRACY
BY SHEELAH McLEAN

Patricia Makokis is a well known Indigenous servant leaders, a consultant and expert.

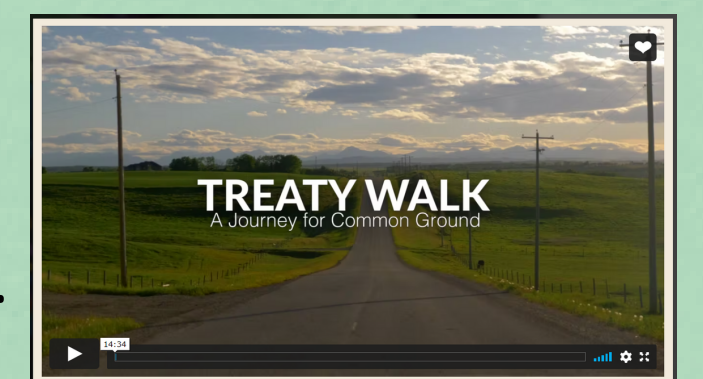

Callysto is a free, online learning tool that focus on math and science. Fish traps, Indigenous history, math, and science!

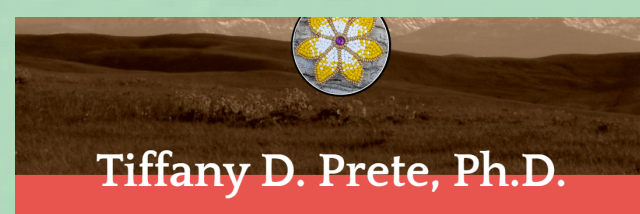

Fish Traps with Data

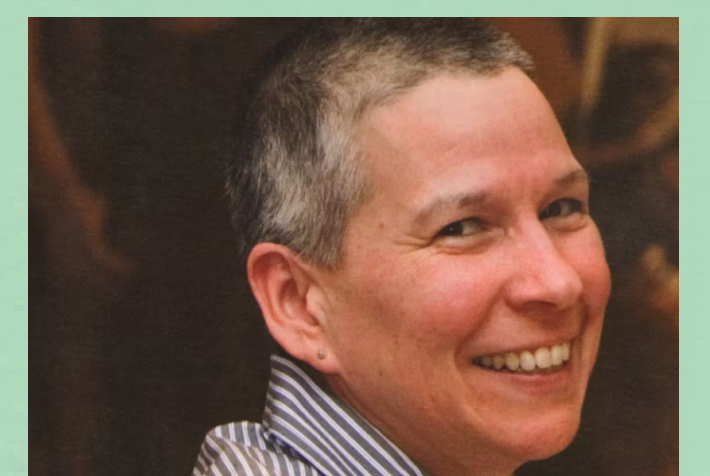

This film follows a group of elders as they go on a journey.

Dr. Tiffany Prete is a member of the Blood Tribe and has done important work in the field of Indigenous Education.

A GREAT video about teachers learning about Indigenous Ways of Knowing.

[Save The Date]

March 6th: Blackfoot patterns @ Galt Museum 1-2PM

March 8th: International Women's Day

March 14th-16th: Indigenous Education Conference in Edmonton. Our team will be out of office.

March. 18th: PL Day - No school for students

[Available Presentations]

- Circles in math
- Numbered treaties in Alberta
- Balance and wellness
- Louis Riel
- Water
- Buffalo hunt
- Indigenous terminology
- Sacred plants/medicines
- MMIWG
- Sustainability and the natural world
- Structures and forces
- Indigenous seismology
- Iniskim (Buffalo Stone) - Ammonite fossils
- Residential schools
- Indigenous activists
- The legend of the buffalo stone - LA connections
- Where does racism exist?

Please email me if you would like any of the above presentations or if you would like any other resources to fit into your curriculum! I can be reached at jenna.jewison@lethsd.ab.ca