REMINDER – No school for students May 20 /21st due to the Victoria Day holiday and a Division wide professional learning say. School resumes on Wed. May 22nd.

Leadership Pizza Fundraiser- our leadership students have partnered with Domino’s pizza to fundraise for the Alberta Children’s Hospital. Pizza is $3 per slice or $5 for two slices. Two slice max per student. There will also be other treats for sale to benefit our Voyage Quebec trip. Please note, each grade is on a different day to accommodate the amount of pizza we bring in.

Gr. 6-7 option registration: Last week, we sent home option forms and descriptions for students and parents to view. Gr. 6 & 7 students have been entering their option selection at school and will continue until May 15th. Our grade 5 incoming students are completing the same process at their respective elementary schools in the coming weeks.

E-waste drive - Mrs. Waugh and Miss Martens' grade 7 classes have partnered with the Natural Leaders Project to host an E-waste drive. Starting Monday May 13 to Friday May 17, we are encouraging the students at Gilbert Paterson to bring in their broken electronics and dead batteries to school. Please drop off in the bins at the front door. All the items that come in will be recycled and disposed of properly. Thank you for your time and support!

Track and Field – We will be having our Paterson track and field day on May 22nd. Over 250 students will try their hand at competing at the University Stadium for our GPMS Meet. Thanks to staff and parents for their support. Top finishers will advance to the City Meet on Wednesday May 29th.

Band and Choir Spring Concerts

There will be a city Wide Handbells concert this Saturday. Tickets are FREE! 7pm at the LDS Church next to the Enmax Centre. Multiple Handbell Choirs (both school and community) from around the city each performing, and a guest choir coming down from Calgary. Paterson Bells will be participating in this.

The jazz band is performing at Southminster Church for Jazz Fest! Students need to arrive at 5pm. Doors open at 5:30pm. Tickets are free!

The grade 6 and jazz bands will be performing for Plaxton Elementary on Mat 24th. Please wear Band hoodies.
